

Asrafi Akther

Asrafi Akther is an Accounts and Admin Officer at Nari Kantho, where she plays a key role in managing the organization's financial and administrative activities. She has completed her graduation in Economics from the National University, which has provided her with a strong foundation in financial management, record keeping, and organizational operations. Through her work, she contributes to maintaining efficiency, accuracy, and accountability within the organization.